

CAML Milestones

This column aims to share organization news, celebrate our colleagues' accomplishments, and document changes for future researchers looking back. Have news to share? Contact the co-lead editors to have your news published in the next issue!

Staffing News

Kyra Folk-Farber (co-lead editor, CAML Review) started a new position as Associate Dean of the University Library at California State University Long Beach.

Dave Haskins was appointed as the Music Librarian at the Music, Art & Architecture Library at the University of British Columbia on August 1st, 2024. As liaison librarian to the School of Music, David provides bibliographic instruction and reference services to faculty and students, and is also responsible for collection development. Previously, he worked at the Richmond Public Library and the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra, both as Associate Principal Horn and also as Music Library Assistant. David holds degrees in horn performance from McGill (M.Mus), the University of Toronto (B.Mus) and the Royal Conservatory of Music (ARCT), and in librarianship from UBC (MLIS).

Congratulations, CAML colleagues!